DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 2-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding Claim 1, the relationship between the "musical signal," the "cabinet simulation model," and the "virtual sampling rate" is not clearly set forth, and as such is vague and indefinite. Correction is required.

Regarding Claim 6, the relationship between the "musical signal," the "simulation models" is not clearly set forth, and as such is vague and indefinite.

The "second amplification simulation model" lackas antecedent basis and is not positively recited. There is no connection between the recited method steps.

Correction is required.

Regarding Claim 8, the relationship between the "musical signal," the "cabinet simulation model," and the "virtual sampling rate" is not clearly set forth, and as such is vague and indefinite. Correction is required.

Regarding Claim 12, the "processing of the musical signal" does not appear to be taking place, and the "amplification simulation models" lack antecedent basis. Correction is required.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970);and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 2,3,4,8,9,10,12 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 62,63,64,139,140,141,74, respectively, of U.S. Patent No. 6,664,460. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the omission of elements from a claimed invention has been to held to not constitute nonobviousness.

Claims 2-13 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, and the double patenting rejection, set forth in this Office action.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Jenkins et al, Scott, Koslov are further cited to show related teachings in the art.
